

PETERSBURG HAS DOUBLE WEDDING

Young Couples Have the Knot Tied in Washington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., September 20.—A double marriage of young couples from Petersburg, neither of whom eloped, took place in Washington to-day, the prospective brides and grooms leaving here early this morning over the Seaboard Air Line railroad. Miss Otis Virginia Morris was married to Mr. Herbert Eugene Goodwin, and Miss Eleanor Jones to Mr. Everett G. Fowlkes.

The defendant's demurrer in the $10,000 damage suit of J. V. Haulnick, administrator, against the Norfolk & Western Railroad Company was sustained yesterday afternoon by Judge West, of the Circuit Court, at Prince George courthouse. The plaintiff was granted leave to amend his declaration, and the case will come up at the November term of the court. The plaintiff's attorney, Matthew Haulnick, was run over and killed by his wagon at a Norfolk & Western railroad crossing last December. The suit is brought on the ground that the accident was caused by the bad condition of the crossing, for which the company is held responsible.

Clint Watson, an escaped convict from Winesboro Mountain prison, Petros, Tenn., was carried back to that place to-day by M. H. Gammon, a warden of that penitentiary. Watson escaped September 7 and was captured here several nights ago by Police Officer Stevens, who was detailed on the case by Captain Ragland.

The progressing work on the diversion of the channel of the Appomattox river was inspected yesterday by Colonel James M. Quinn and Captain E. E. Winslow, of the United States engineers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

There are 153 students now registered at the college, twenty-seven more than were registered in the same time last session.

It is estimated that there are about 50 here who have not returned.

A large percentage of those present are new students. A good number of the last year boys are expected to come in later. Almost every train brings a new arrival to swell the number. The attendance will doubtless far exceed that of last session.

DEMOCRATS AND POPS FUSE IN NEBRASKA

LINCOLN, NEB., September 20.—Fusion of Democrats and Populists of Nebraska was effected to-day by the nomination by both State conventions of the following ticket: Justice of the Supreme Court, William G. Hastings, Democrat; Regents of the University, D. C. Cole, Populist; Louis Lightner, Democrat.

The feature of the Democratic gathering was the speech of William J. Bryan, in which he bore his party associates in the State farewell for at least a year, on the eve of his departure on a tour of the world. Mr. Bryan commended President Roosevelt for what he declared to be his advanced stand on the principles long advocated by Democrats. On these principles he hoped every Democrat would uphold the President.

A resolution, which was promptly adopted, denounced the Rockefeller suit to the University of Nebraska; criticized the regents for accepting it and demanded the return of the gift to the donor.

SCORED A SUCCESS.

Madam Adler Charmed An Audience of Her Own People.

One of the most unique, and for many reasons most interesting, plays that has been seen upon the Richmond stage in many years was witnessed last night when Madame Sara Adler, the Jewish tragedienne, presented "The Broken Hearts" at the Academy.

The company presenting this play is one of exceptional skill, with not a single weak member, and, notwithstanding the lines were all spoken in the Yiddish dialect, the play was easily intelligible to many. The play was hurriedly received, and the audience, composed for the most part of those of her own nationality, proved to be one of the most appreciative of the season. The audience, however, was not as large as the play deserved.

Madame Adler as Gitele, the daughter of a rabbi, and the victim of an unrequited love, manifested the utmost command of her art and evinced wonderful power. Though never seen in this city before, she made a profoundly favorable impression on her audience, especially in the scene in the second act where she is driven from home by her father, and again at the end of the third act, when she is to be separated from her child, does she show her ability. The play is a tragedy, and the play is most pathetic, and Madame Adler's portrayal of it is horribly realistic. Mr. J. W. Hines, as the strictly orthodox Jewish father, was splendid, as was also Miss Ida Goldstein as Michle, the elder daughter.

Mr. A. Shapiro, as a peddler, was excellent and served to relieve the intense tension by his novel humor. Mr. Shapiro is also a good dancer and singer.

Deshon and a Big Company.

There will be much tripping of the light fantastic and twirling of toes and elevating of heels at the Academy to-night, when Frank Deshon and his big company of sixty people will present the musical comedy "The Office Boy."

The stage settings are said to be sumptuous, the costumes new and rich, and the play a little comedian in the title role of Noah Little, the office youth, is making the hit of his brilliant career.

The Detective's Big Week.

"The Millionaire Detective" will round out a good week at the Bijou. The house has been filled at every performance.

DECLARE STUART IS A RENEGADE

Confederate Camps Discuss Resolution But Does Not Pass It.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Sept. 20.—A resolution denouncing as a renegade Captain J. E. B. Stuart, collector of customs for this port and son of the famous Confederate cavalry leader, in honor of whose memory the local camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans was named, was offered during a meeting of the camp last night. Captain T. A. Johnson presented the resolution and it was discussed at some length. Almost every one present agreed with the sentiments expressed in the paper, but it was deemed inadvisable for the body to adopt it and it was laid upon the table.

The resolution declared Captain Stuart to be a disgrace to the memory of his honored father and unworthy of the respect of sons of Confederate veterans.

AFTERWARDS REGISTRAR.

Folkes Says He Was Not Election Officer When Smith Held Meeting

That a serious trouble did not ensue between Mr. T. W. Folkes, registrar of Jefferson Ward, and Mr. A. L. Lucas, who was said to have been an applicant for the position, is alleged to have been a denial by Mr. Lucas that he had made any affidavit to the effect that Folkes was an attendant at meetings held in the interest of the candidacy of J. C. Smith for city sergeant.

Mr. Folkes wrote Mr. Lucas a letter in which he said that the affidavit was an untruth and demanded a public retraction from Mr. Lucas. Not receiving this in time, Mr. Folkes went to the home of Mr. Lucas and in the presence of an official of the city and a policeman, demanded a retraction. Mr. Lucas denied that he had made the affidavit that was said to have been in the possession of Mr. Royall.

In the affidavit it was alleged that Mr. Folkes, with the registration books, attended a meeting held in the interest of Mr. Smith. Mr. Folkes at the time he was with Mr. Smith was not a registrar, not having then been appointed registrar.

Norvell, of Company B, Seventeenth Regiment; Captain G. N. Skilworth, of Company C, Seventeenth Regiment, judge advocate. DIXON KNOCKED OUT.

Tommy Murphy, of New York, Won in the Second Round.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PHILADELPHIA, September 20.—Geo. Dixon, the former featherweight champion, was tonight knocked out in the second round of what was to have been a six-round bout by Tommy Murphy, of New York, at the National Athletic Club. The contest was spirited, while it lasted, although it could be seen that Murphy was master of the situation from the start.

The first round was a sparring contest, but in the second Murphy assumed the aggressive and succeeded in flooring Dixon early in the round. Later, after an exchange of blows, Murphy drove a left to the solar plexus and Dixon went down and out.

MAN ARRESTED WHO MAY BE "GOLD-BRICK" PARKER

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, September 20.—Posing as the man whom it was their intention to swindle, a central office detective today arrested at the point of the pistol John T. Wilson, alias John Kane, and H. William Parker, alias Frank Morris, said by the police to be two of the most notorious "green goods" men and all around criminals in the country. Up to the last moment Wilson and Parker believed they were dealing with W. H. Jarratt, postmaster at Dillaborn, N. C. It was a communication from Mr. Jarratt that put the police on the trail.

It is likely that the Parker mentioned is "Gold-Brick" Parker, once an inmate of the Henrico county jail, who figured so extensively in the newspapers at the time.

FACTS AS TO LYNCHBURG'S COMMERCIAL LEADERSHIP

OF VITAL INTEREST TO EVERY MERCHANT

THAT Lynchburg is the whole South's leader as a commercial center and distributor is a fact borne out by indisputable figures! That it is vitally to your interest to trade here is another fact equally sustained.

Her proximity to the sea; her location on the James river at the junction of three competing trunk lines; her miles of water and railway plant sites; her abundant and almost untouched stores of raw materials, and her cheap and intelligent labor are the all-powerful factors that brought Lynchburg her array of fifty factories, manufacturing forty-five different articles, comprising almost everything you can eat, chew, smoke, wear or use.

No matter what you handle as a retail merchant, you can find on display here stocks, as immense, varied and extensive, at prices and on terms as good as can be seen or secured anywhere else in the country.

Lynchburg's unrivalled situation as regards water and railway transportation gives her a tremendous lead in competitive freight rates, importing and distributing, at the same time making prompt delivery of all orders a feasible certainty.

Last year Lynchburg's wholesale business exceeded $20,000,000.00. Considering the saving in prices, rates, etc., this represents a truly stupendous saving to the merchants who buy their goods through us. Are you on the inside track? Are you getting your percentage of this economy?

We pay your railroad fare if you buy the seasons goods here, and you should always remember that Lynchburg is the pioneer commercial center of the South, the first to start, and still years ahead of all competition.
